the feel-good comedy

HALFWAY THERE

by Norm Foster

Sep 13 - 28, 2024

Dr. Sean Merrit wanders into the small town of Stewiacke, Nova Scotia. Recently heartbroken, he's looking for a new start and soon meets four local women, each with their own interesting life stories. What follows is a month of lessons learned through hilarity, tears and the bonds of unshakeable friendship.

the family comedy

HAVING HOPE AT HOME

by David S. Craig

Nov 15 - 30, 2024

A side-splitting look at a family learning to love again. On a winter night, a baby is about to arrive. But modern medicine meets midwifery head on in a torrent of family feuding. As tensions rise, so does laughter. It takes a baby to heal the rift in this heartwarming story of forgiveness and hope.

the classic drama

ALL MY SONS

by Arthur Miller

Jan 24 - Feb 8, 2025

During the Second World War, Joe Keller and Herbert Deever ran a machine shop making airplane parts. Deever was sent to prison because the firm turned out defective parts while Keller went free and made a lot of money. The twin shadows of this catastrophe lead to an unforgettable conclusion to a play electrifying in its intensity.

the gripping thriller

SILVER DAGGER

by David French

Mar 28 - Apr 12, 2025

Steve Marsh is a mystery writer and after his third novel is published, his wife receives a series of phone calls and letters that threaten to destroy their marriage. Adultery, blackmail, murder, a figure lurking in the rain – all elements of Marsh's fiction become part of his life in this riveting thriller.

THE GENTLEMAN CLOTHIER

by Norm Foster

May 30 - Jun 14, 2025

Norman Davenport feels he was born in the wrong century. He has barely opened the doors to his new clothing store when Sophie barges in looking for work, followed by Patrick. Hesitantly, he hires them both and then proceeds to make a wish that changes everything. This is a fun old-fashioned comedy wrapped up with a bow!
